VI. ABOUT THE IP ADDRESS

The IP address is a number used by computers on the internet to identify your computer as unique at any given time. Our web servers automatically collect your IP address as "traffic data" and these will not be used for any other purpose.

VII. USE OF COOKIES

A cookie is a small data file that is sent to your computer when you visit a website. Our cookies are designed to optimize your browsing experience and include an identification number that is unique to the computer you are using.

At any time, the user may revoke his consent to the use of cookies. We warn, however, that some features of this website may be limited in case of blocking cookies.

VIII. OBJECTIVE OF DATA PROCESSING

The information collected will not be used for advertising or commercial purposes, nor for any other purpose other than establishing contact with the User, with the consent or request of the Data Owner, in accordance with item I of article 7 of Law no. 13,709/2018 – General Data Protection Law (LGPD).

IX. DATA SECURITY

All information we collect is stored in secure operating environments, not available for public access with privacy and security.

MARGUI MÁQUINAS LTDA. employs all reasonable market efforts to ensure the security of its systems in the custody of said data, guaranteeing the user:

- Use of standard and market methods to encrypt and anonymize the collected data;
- Use of software to protect against unauthorized access to our systems;
- Authorization of access only to previously authorized persons to the places where we store both physical and digital information;
- Existence of internal policies for maintaining information security; and
- Execution of contracts with collaborators who have access to their information, aiming to establish the obligation to maintain absolute secrecy and confidentiality of accessed data, under penalty of civil and criminal liability, in accordance with Brazilian legislation.
